REMINDER

We are operating in Summer Mode. Sunday Service will be only on the Second Sunday in June, July and August. The group will gather at 10 am for conversation and the service will begin at 10:30 AM. In September we will meet on the 2nd and 4th Sunday.

In October we will start our new schedule with three services a month. These will be held on the 1st, 2nd and 4th Sunday starting with conversation at 10 AM and service at 10:30. Friday evening services are a thing of the past.

Warm thoughts go out to John Weaver and his family after the recent loss of his beloved Betty. We do hope he will continue to embrace the loving support of SGUUF as he continues his journey.

We continue to send warm thoughts and love to Gene Ellis and Lynn. It is important to let them know that each of us in our own way make up a large cheering section rooting for the return of gentle health to Gene in these trying days.

Sunday, September 12—this service will be our “Water Ceremony” so remember to bring water from places you visited this summer or from home if staying home worked best for you. Sunday, October 17—save this date for our Fall picnic at Berry Springs Park. We will have a pavilion from 11 am to 3 pm so think “potluck” and leave no trash behind.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

Roe and Caroline Mackey attended the UUA Convention in Minnesota this past weekend. We hear our banner hung proudly in the convention hall. Look for a report in the next UPBEAT to hear about SGUUF’s emergence at the convention. Stay tuned.
